To continue, for a time to be limited, the Acts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland.

Note.—The Words printed in Italics are proposed to be inserted in the Committee.

WH ~~HEREBY~~ an Act was passed in the Session holden in the first and second years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled,
"An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland," to continue in force until the first day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and thenceforth until the end of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer; which Act was amended by an Act passed in the third year of His present Majesty's reign: And whereas by an Act made in the seventh and eighth years of His present Majesty's reign both the said Acts were continued; and by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament both the said Acts were continued and amended, and the said Acts are in force until the end of this present Session of Parliament; and it is expedient that the said Acts should be further continued; BE it therefore Enacted, by The KING's most Excellent MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, THAT the said two first recited Acts, and also the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, shall be and the said Acts are hereby continued, and shall remain in force for Two years, and from thence until the end of the then next Session of Parliament.
